HISTORY

World Supremacy Battlegrounds was established by Founder Marco Andre Selorio in July 2004.

“Battlegrounds” was originally held in Essendon, Victoria in what transformed into a City State vs. City State battle between intense rivals Melbourne and Sydney. Seven crews from each side matched up and went head-to-head. The top scoring crew Rewind (VIC) but Sydney ultimately won the City State Battle 5 - 2.

What pre-empted Battlegrounds was GROOVE, the freshly squeezed dance competition that kicked off two years prior. From its humble beginnings in Parramatta, NSW, GROOVE became the launch pad that facilitated the creation of Battlegrounds.

The popularity of Battlegrounds spread across Australia, and soon New Zealand and the Philippines. The event was renamed “World Supremacy Battlegrounds” (WSB) as it continued to expand into new territory. Since then, we have made a presence across six continents.

Over the last twenty years, we have seen the active participation of New Zealand, Singapore, Japan, South Africa, Canada, USA, Malaysia, Thailand, Ecuador, Sierra Leone, Germany, Netherlands, France, UK, Solomon Islands, Korea, Guam, China and Tonga.

Our family-friendly event has become a leading street dance entertainment platform for dancers and artists alike. More champion crews and choreographers have used WSB to gain recognition, experience and exposure to a global audience.
